Message from Jane Sydenham-Clarke Chief Executive Officer

We wish to convey our warmest wishes to you and your family at this festive time. However you're choosing to mark the season, we hope that it brings you joy and peace.

We have had a busy year, culminating in the work we have done to bring the new branding for Freemasons Victoria to life. Our new website showcases our brand but it is just the beginning - we're inspired by all of you to ensure that our organisation meets the challenges of the modern world and continues to grow and thrive. Our focus is on showcasing the great things that all of our Lodges are doing, and communicating in a friendly and open way the opportunity that the practice of Freemasonry presents. The friendship and fellowship Freemasonry provides is needed by men more than ever, and we want to make sure they know they're welcome to join us.

We're looking forward to a new year, where we can continue the work already begun and bring you all on this exciting journey with us.

Are you a Monash student or Alumnus? We have had some interest in seeding a new Lodge at Monash University. Please let me know if you are interested in joining Fotios Spiridonos, Mark Law and me to explore the development of a new Lodge by emailing me here.

Happy and safe holidays!
